SAYS LABOR TRUCE WOULD MEAN CUT IN COST OF LIVING

Six Months of Peace Urged by Palmer—Scores Congress Inaction on Food Laws.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Those developments in the food situation were recorded in the national capital to-day.

Attorney General Palmer blames Congressional delay in passing the laws requested by President Wilson for the continued high prices and urges, too, a six months truce for capital and labor.

Senator Norris blames some of the high cost of living on the failure to enforce present laws and declares no new ones are needed.

Representative Caraway accuses the Republicans of prolonging industrial unrest in order to gain into political advantage.

The Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association tells of packers' propaganda and charges that packers subsidized or terrified witnesses other than employees to testify.

Failure on the part of Congress to take up the suggestions of the President and enact needed legislation against food hoarders and profiteers is delaying the settlement of conditions that will give permanent relief from the high cost of living, said Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer.

The Attorney General declared that if a six months' truce in the fight between labor and capital could be brought about at this time "the cost of living would fall as surely as night falls at the end of the day." The terms of such a truce, he said, must be lived up to both in the letter and spirit by both sides.

In discussing the progress of the campaign against the high cost of living, the Attorney General said the progress has been fairly satisfactory. "I think we have obtained real results in the whole campaign," Mr. Palmer said. "We have been informed by the trade in many lines that the tendency toward high prices has been checked. Another striking feature is the hesitancy on the part of dealers in all lines to yield to the chance of increasing prices."

"The Attorney General said he was particularly desirous of having his recommendation to Congress for a penalty to the profiteering laws put through.

House Committee Favors Cold Storage Control Bill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The first of the high cost of living laws asked of Congress by President Wilson took form to-day when the House Agriculture Committee ordered favorably reported a bill to control cold storage.

All containers of food when placed in storage would be stamped "cold storage food" and the dates upon which they entered and left storage would be stamped on them. A limit of twelve months is provided.

BROOKLYN MAN G.A.R. HEAD?

John D. Bell Leading Candidate for Commander-in-Chief.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 11.—The 53rd Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic began its business session this morning. The new Commander-in-Chief probably will be selected to-day or to-morrow.

James D. Bell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is considered the most likely candidate.

Gen. Leonard Wood, is expected to-morrow.

Plot to Assassinate Peru's President. LIMA, Peru, Sept. 11.—A conspiracy to assassinate President Augusto B. Leguía at the race meeting next Sunday was the reason for wholesale arrests last night, according to information available at the government palace to-day.

FILE CLAIMS FOR STATE PAY.

No Provision Made for Salaries of Deputy Commissioners.

ALBANY, Sept. 11.—No provision having been made in the General Appropriations Bill for the salaries of the five deputies of the reorganized First District Public Service Commission, two of them, Alfred W. Barrett and Edgar J. Glennon, of New York, have filed claims with the State Court of Claims for their pay for July and August, the first two months of the fiscal year.

Attorney General Newton advised them that they could either go to the Court of Claims or have an item covering their salaries put in next year's deficiency bill.

BLIND PRISONER A TYPIST.

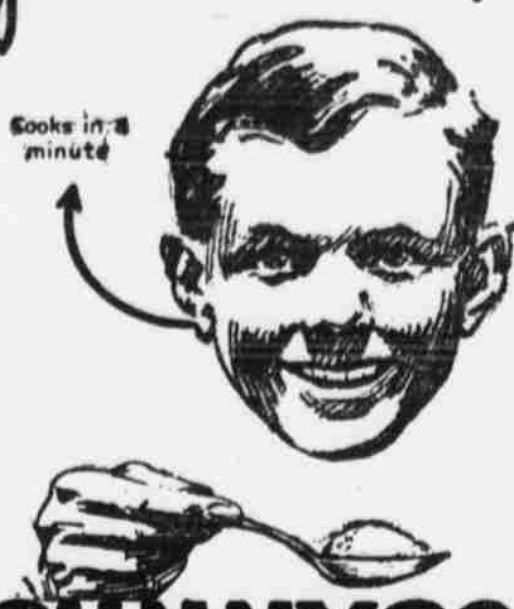

Lawyer Paroled From Sing Sing Has New Occupation.

ORRINGTON, Sept. 11.—Charles Cosum, former lawyer and blind prisoner of Sing Sing, for whom Gov. Alfred Smith has signed a pardon, has lately learned to operate a typewriter, it was announced to-day, and hopes to earn his living by typing as soon as he is released from prison. Cosum was taught to operate the typewriter by the touch system.

His blindness is the result of a self-inflicted wound. He tried to kill himself by shooting himself in the head in Poughkeepsie. This led to the discovery that he had stolen funds entrusted to him by clients. Cosum is the only blind prisoner ever confined in Sing Sing.

Autumn Veils

That make fair faces appear fairer and cast a softness and charm over the duldest of complexions.

Fashion is generous this season where Veils are concerned. She permits wide latitude for choice. We may wear snugly fitting Veils, flowing or draped styles, in a variety of fancy or plain meshes. Then, too, she sanctions some novel effects in lace squares or oblongs to be carelessly draped about the neck, after the fashion of a Scarf.

We are showing a selection of exceeding beauty and attraction, including some charming patterns in Imported Veilings. All are modestly priced.

The Comfort Veil
1.25

This is a novel, close-fitting veil which is so adroitly woven as to eliminate bothersome wrinkling at the neck. No elastic is used. It comes in Black, Brown, Taupe and Navy Blue.

Le Collet Voilette
1.95

An attractive and useful novelty borrowed from the French. It is a collar of heavy Taffeta in the new Fall shades, designed to hold the Veil snugly in place. The illustration on the left pictures one with accordion plaited frills, which is becoming to all types.

AN ADVANTAGEOUS SALE Women's Dresses

regularly 42.50

In this assortment you are certain to find just what you have been seeking—a smart, new Fall Frock at little expenditure.

Glowing Satin, in Navy Blue or Black, was chosen for them, as that is the season's favorite fabric, and, furthermore, because it lends itself gracefully to the newer modes.

Although their price is exceedingly modest, all those little niceties of style and cut, finish and fit that are indigenous to costly Gowns are evident in these, for they were made to sell at a much higher price.

In addition to those pictured are many others, including exceptionally attractive styles in Navy Blue Tricotine, all of which bear the same hall-marks of fashion and distinction.

WEARMOOR

Clothes for Boys

Are not called Wearmoor for nothing!

They mean more wear for Boys and less worry for their Mothers

Boys are an expense, particularly in these times. Most of us would not take a million for the boys we have, nor give a million for another one! We would love them better if their clothes wore longer. The trouble is, most boys' clothes are cheaply and indifferently made, and neither look well nor wear long.

WEARMOOR Clothes for Boys wear long enough to pay for themselves and look fine while they are doing it!

We have not cheapened them. That would make matters worse. We have increased the cost of production, but we have also increased the period of wear, for we have introduced into the modeling and the making such features of excellence as never were put into boys' clothes before. Yet, we have not materially changed the prices, because we have been able to offset the higher cost of finer workmanship by the savings resulting from our own first-hand purchasing of woolsens and trimmings.
